At a very large regular meeting of the Calgary Council of the Great War Veterans Association, held last Sunday, the Vice President, Mr. J. W. O'Connor, made a very interesting address to the members of the association, who were gathered in the hall of the Hotel Vancouver.

Speaking of the veterans of the Great War, Mr. O'Connor said that they were the backbone of the nation, and that they had given the best of themselves for their country.

Mr. O'Connor, Minister of Labor, said that he was proud to be a Canadian, and that he was proud to be a member of the Veterans Association.
